Our Mission

- “to perform the Corporal Work of Mercy of burying the dead of the Archdiocese, and to witness our faith and here in the Resurrection in so doing. In fulfilling this mission, CCAW is charged with the responsibility of providing the burial needs of the Catholic Community of the Archdiocese.”

The Role of the Cemetery

- Permanent resting place on sacred ground
 - Final committal of the body to rest
- Compassionate assistance from the day of the burial onward. Examples include;
 - Ordering a memorial
 - Perpetual Care - maintaining the peace and beauty of the grounds
 - Assisting friends and loved ones who come to visit

The Benefits of Pre Planning

➤ Financial

- Relieve family of financial burden
- Prevent emotional overspending
- Protect against inflation
- Pay in installments with no interest
- More of your assets will go to family members

➤ Emotional

- Ease your family's emotional stress by making your wishes known
- Better lot selection and opportunities to keep family members together by purchasing family plots
- More time to consider options
- Peace of Mind

What to Prepare

What does the cemetery require?

- Space
 - Gravesite, niche, crypt, etc.
- Interment/Entombment Fees (sometimes called opening/closing costs)
 - Labor, materials and equipment for opening and closing the site, setting up for service, administration/record keeping
- Outer Burial Container
 - For in ground burial only, vault or liner for the casket or urn
- Memorialization (*Optional)
 - Headstone, flush marker, inscriptions, plaques
- Do as much or as little in advance as you prefer

What Will This Cost Me?

The average cost of a traditional burial is roughly $5,500 - $6,600

This does not include the memorial

Saturdays are an additional cost
